NUMB. 3225

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1744

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Flanders.

Naples, August 29.

HER Majesty was so much alarm'd at the Thoughts of the Danger to which the King was expos'd in the Action of the 11th, that she could not avoid writing to his Majesty in the most pressing Terms, in order, if it had been possible, to induce his Majesty to leave the Command of his Army to his Generals, and to return to his Capital. The King, however, wrote her, in Answer, so many Reasons for his remaining with the Army, that how much Concern soever may give her Majesty, she finds herself oblig'd to resist from her Instances for that Purpose. There arriv'd, a few Days ago, a Commissary from the Army, who borrow'd, from our Banks, all the Ready Money they had, for his Majesty's Service. It has been found necessary to recall 800 Men, who were in Garison at Pescara, in order to strengthen the King's Army. The Officers who were taken Prisoners in the late Affair on the 11th, have been releas'd by the Austrians on their parole. Of this Number are ten Captains of the Irish Regiments, 16 Lieutenants, and 15 Ensigns. Col. Mordaunt, and Lieutenant-Colonel O'Connor, were kill'd upon the Spot, with 35 Officers more of the same Brigade; so that this fine Corps of Troops is in a manner wholly destroy'd.

Turin, August 29. It does not appear that the Enemy are in any Haste to undertake the Siege of Coni, notwithstanding all their boasting; but seem rather occupied in collecting Contributions. Their Camp, at present, is a Mile distant from the Place; and we are not extremely well pleas'd with the Governor's waiting his Powder and Shot, in keeping a continual Fire upon those who are, in a manner, out of his Reach. His Majesty is encamp'd at Saluzzo, where he will be able to give the Enemy a great deal of Disturbance, whenever they come to undertake the Siege of Coni in earnest. The first Corps of Warradins, that are marching to the Assistance of the King, our Sovereign, arriv'd Yesterday at Mondovier; the Second pass'd this Day thro' our Neighbourhood; and the Third, with the Regiment of Cleves, are expected here To-morrow. A numerous Detachment of the Enemy's Troops advanc'd a few Days ago to Peregrano, and demanded Contributions. The Magistrates and the Townsmen refus'd to comply with their Demand, and defended themselves most obstinately, till they were over-born by Numbers. This has prov'd a very fatal Affair; for the Enemy were so provok'd at the Resistance they met with, by which they lost abundance of Officers, and some Hundreds of private Men, that they not only plunder'd the Place with the utmost severity, but, after turning the Inhabitants out of their Houses, set them on Fire, and burnt the Place to the Ground.

From the Head Quarters of the Prince of Conti at Caraglio, August 29.

The Morning after Demont surrender'd, his Highness, the Marquis de las Minas, put themselves at the Head of a Body of Horse, in order to reconnoitre the Enemy, and resolv'd to attack them the next Morning; but his Sardinian Majesty being inform'd of their Intention, immediately decamp'd, and abandon'd this Place, the Night. On the 19th, in the Morning, Messieurs Pignatelli and du Cailia were detach'd with 6000 Horse, and 29 Companies of Grenadiers, in order to make themselves Masters of Caraglio; and to advance, afterwards, within two Miles of Coni. On the 22d the whole Army continued its March to this Place, where they are at present encamp'd in one Line; the Spanish Cavalry are on the Right, towards Coni; the Infantry in the Center, and the French Horse in the Left. On the 24th Messieurs de Pignatelli and du Cailia pursued the Enemy as far as Saluces, where they found them drawn up in order of Battle; but having no Orders to engage, they thought proper to retire, which they did in good Order, and without being pursued. We intend to decamp from hence the Day after To-morrow; the Artillery designed for the Siege of Coni, begins to move this Day, and has been reinforc'd by eight Pieces, each carrying Bullets of 24 Pound, from Demont. We hope to open Ground before Coni, in the Night, between the 4th and 9th of September.

Vienna, September 5. On Wednesday last the Duke and the Queen Regent came hither, to the Opera, and returned the same Evening to Schonbrunn. On Thursday her Majesty and his Royal Highness took the Air; and Yesterday they went to visit the eldest Archduchess, who is indisposed, and afterwards dined in the Castle. Prince Charles is expected here the latter End of next Week, in order to confer with the Queen's Ministers on the subsequent Operations of the Campaign. Two Persons of great Distinction were lately brought hither from Prague, where they were arrested some time ago. The last Advices we have from that City, inform us, that the Prussians arriv'd before it on the 1st of last Month, and had taken Post before the Hospital of Invalids, which they found abandon'd; that soon after, a large Body of their Cavalry attack'd a Place called Eiskow, from whence they were repuls'd, with the Loss of the Officer who commanded them, and a great many Men; and that it was expected, the other Columns of the Prussian Army would arrive before Prague on the 4th and 6th of this Month. We learn from Silesia, that the Prussian Troops have enter'd her Majesty's Dominions on that Side also; that they have made themselves Masters of Troppo, and expect daily a strong Reinforcement; and a large Train of battering Cannon from Berlin. Sir Thomas Robinson, his Britannick Majesty's Minister, and Mr. Lenzinski, Envoy from the Czarins, are in frequent Conference with the Queen's Ministers; and we daily expect to hear very extraordinary News from Saxony.

Frankfort, September 14. We have a certain Account, that his Highness the Duke of Wurtemberg, has acceded to the Treaty of Union; and that 4000 of his Troops are in full march to join the Imperial Army. A Detachment of our Troops is already advanced as far as Tauber; the Hessian Troops are in full march, in order to join the Imperialists; his Highness, the Elector of Mentz, has published an Answer to the two Commissarial Decrees of the 11th of December, and the 29th of July, which are said to have given great Offence to this Court; and will not, perhaps, induce his Imperial Majesty to prevent, by his Intercession, the Bombardment of his Electoral Residence; for which, it is certain, the French are preparing.

Hague, September 16. All the Foreign Ministers residing here, are almost in daily Conference with their High Mightinesses. It is thought a little extraordinary, that the French and Spanish Ministers are as warm in their Solicitations, as the Ministers of the Allies, that the States would declare themselves, without acting any longer on the Reserve; and it is said, the Abbe de la Ville lately presented a Memorial to that Purpose, alledging, that his most Christian Majesty is desirous of treating all his Neighbours without Reserve, and expects to be so treated by them. It cannot be long before something decisive, with respect to the Disposition of their High Mightinesses, appears; and there are actually many People here, who are of Opinion, that a Declaration of War against France is in the Press, as also an Exposition of the Motives conformable to the modern Custom; yet the Spanish Ambassador said, the other Day, at a publick Entertainment, that it would not be long before he was charg'd with a Commission of Importance, from his Master, to the States General; which would demonstrate how wrong a Judgment they made of Things, who suppos'd the War on the Point of becoming general. A Courier just arriv'd from Vienna, has brought us the important News, that Prince Charles's Army is actually arriv'd in Bavaria; and that, it is not doubted, they will be able to join Count Bathiani time enough to raise the Siege of Prague.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bristol, September 8. Last Sunday Night, about Twelve o'Clock, died, at the Ship near the Plain, William Gawling, by a Blow which he had some small time before received, of one Benjamin Taylor, on the left Side of his Head, by a Bludgeon, or large Stick. The Occasion of this unhappy Affair arose from some Words between them; but as there appear'd to be no premeditated Evil on the Side of Taylor, and that several Blows had pass'd between them, the Coroner's Jury brought in their Verdict Manlaughter. Three Surgeons of this City have given their Depositions; that on opening the Skull of the Deceased, they found a Fracture of about an Inch long, on the Left Side of the Temple Bone, and a large Quantity of Blood on that Side of the Brain, which they apprehended to be the Occasion of his Death.

Dr. ROBERT EATON

BALSAMICK STYPTICK,

Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's Last Dwelling

House, now Mrs. DUTTON's, in Salisbury Court

Fleet-street.

THIS Medicine restrains, in a most surprising Manner, all internal as well as external

Hæmorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous

Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting

Blood; also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoids or Mosses; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c.

(if used according to the plain Directions given with it) will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, in all

Climates; therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtaining his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine; but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting the Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. The late Learned Dr. CHEYNE, in his Excellent

Piece, entitled The Natural Method of curing the Distempers of the Body, &c. prefers Eaton's STYPTICK to Helvetius's other Stypticks; and speaks of it as follows:—Every one knows the agglutinating Quality of sweet Blood, and I perhend it is to this, that Eaton's Styptick owes its mild, folding Efficacy. It is more mild, subduing and soft, than the mildest Steel Preparations, and more to patch a Hole, or glew up a Rupture, or to give a Ballum to the acrid and inflam'd flowing Blood of the Patient.

I say, he is confirmed in this by a Physician of great and Candor, who has great Opportunities of dealing in Cases, by his Practice in Midwifery. See p. 192.
